

Photo Permission Form

As a parent driven charity, the Stillbirth Foundation Australia has always used images of babies to demonstrate the reality of stillbirth. In order to continue with this practice, we would like to create a “bank” of photographs for use in presentations, newsletters, brochures and other promotional materials for the Stillbirth Foundation Australia. The photographs will be kept safely on file and at every use your baby’s name will always be acknowledged and you, as parents will be thanked.

If you would like to be involved, please send an electronic photo or two of your baby. Please do not feel restricted with what you send, as we need a variety of photos! For instance, apart from photos featuring a beautiful baby on his/her own, we’d love to see photographs of babies with their parents, family, and friends, some showing little hands and little feet and any images that show the true raw emotions evoked by stillbirth.

Please complete this form and return as a scanned attachment in an email, along with the electronic copies of your photos to melinda@stillbirthfoundation.org.au or post to:
