

Stillbirth Foundation Australia eNewsletter April 2010

Latest News:

Stuart Hamilton – Stillbirth Foundation Australia Fellow

Stuart Hamilton is the recipient of the inaugural Stillbirth Foundation Australia PhD scholarship. For the next three years, Stuart will be investigating the role of human cytomegalovirus in stillbirth which will hopefully shed light into some of the factors that cause stillbirth and outline preventative measures that can be taken to minimise the number of stillbirths in Australia and globally each year. Read more about Stuart's research.
