

Stillbirth Foundation Australia eNewsletter

September 2009

Welcome to the September 2009 e-Newsletter update from the Stillbirth Foundation Australia team. We are thrilled to share with you all of the Stillbirth Foundation Australia upcoming events and activities that are planned around Australia to help us raise funds for research and awareness of stillbirth in Australia!

The Stillbirth Foundation Australia is excited to help promote local events that some of our wonderful supporters are organising with their friends, family and workplaces. We encourage you to help us fundraise in your local area to help raise money and awareness of stillbirth within the community, or to show your support by attending those all ready organised.

Upcoming Events:

Reverse Draw Raffle – Griffith, NSW

Date: 11th October 2009 Venue: Coro Club, Griffith, NSW

$1000 Reverse Draw plus minor prizes drawn every 50th number! Tickets cost just $30 per person which includes lunch, beer, wine and soft drink. And even if you can't attend, you can still buy tickets for this raffle as winners do not need to be present (prizes can be mailed). More information...

Get involved:

Media Spokespeople

You may have seen more about stillbirth and the Stillbirth Foundation Australia in the papers and on the radio recently. In our efforts to raise public awareness of stillbirth, we are beginning to engage the media and are looking for parents who would be willing to share their story with the press. Please contact Melinda to register your interest.

Call for Committee Members for the Little Feet Taking Big Steps Ball 2010

The Stillbirth Foundation Australia is beginning preparations for the Little Feet Taking Big Steps Ball 2010. If you would like to be involved in organising in this fabulous event in some way, please contact Melinda to register your interest.

Be a Hero!

Did you know that anytime you take part in a Fun Run, bike ride, or another other physical event, you can raise funds for the Stillbirth Foundation Australia? It's so easy – all you need to do is create your own Everyday Hero page online and away you go!

In Celebration - Donating to Charity in Lieu of a Gift

If you are planning to hold a party to mark a special occasion such as a birthday, wedding or anniversary, please consider a Celebration Donation and ask your guests to donate to the Stillbirth Foundation Australia in lieu of a gift. All donations over $2 are tax deductible in Australia and a tax receipt will be issued.

Thank You:

The Little Feet Taking Big Steps Ball 2009 – Sydney

The Stillbirth Foundation Australia would like to thank everyone who attended and supported us at the Little Steps Taking Big Steps Ball 2009. We are thrilled to report that the Ball was a huge success and raised $80,000! In return of their wonderful support, we encourage you to patronise the businesses that donated their goods and services for the event. Please visit our website for a full list of our supporters. Also, if you attended the event and are interested in any of the photos that were taken on the night, please contact Melinda.

City to Surf Participants

Thank you to all supporters who participated in the recent City to Surf 2009, particularly those who created Herald Heroes pages and managed to collectively raise over $6,000 for our charity! Thank you also to those who purchased our singlets and caps to help raise public awareness of the Stillbirth Foundation Australia.

Ruby Rose Day

A huge thank you goes to James, Erin and Freya Brown for their wonderful efforts in holding “Ruby Rose Day” at the Balmain Rugby Club on Saturday 25th July, in honour of their beautiful Ruby Rose Brown. The Stillbirth Foundation Australia is very grateful for the Brown’s support and the generous donations made by all who attended on the day.
